Of annual winter sale of Remakius & Beckman on last page of this paper. It will pay you to do so. Big reductions all slong the line. Sale begins to-morrow morning and closes Saturday, January 28. Don't miss it.

Brings Out Many Contestants-An Interesting Meeting Anticipated To-Day.

The entries for the corn show to-day at the Public Library are very gratifydress by Judge Younger at 10 o'clock this morning at the City Hall. Prof. Cook, the State lecturer and corn expert, will follow with an address. At 1 o'clock Prof. Cook will deliver his second lecture. The election of omcers will close the meeting.

43 acre farm owned by Lawrence Re-makius in Washington township, and which joined Mr. Willman's 160 farm on the east, occupied by Henry Hildbold. The price paid was $2700. Oscar Sauders is the present tenant of the farm. -Ft. Recovery Tribune.

The Griffin farm of eighty acres in Center township was purchased by Earl Poor Wednesday. The consideration was $8,500.

The finely improved 120-acre farm of J. W. Miller, in Dublin township, was purchased the first of the week by A. G. Shaffer, of Van Wert, for the sum of

The residence property on South Wayne street, owned and occupied by Mrs. Katherine M. Schroeter, was sold this week to Commissioner Fred Heiby, who will move his family to town as soon as possession is given, which will be soon. The consideration is $2150. Mrs. Schroeter will move into her own property now occupied by George C.

This is the second deal made with a week for property in that neighbo hood, Mr. Rathweg buying the Schler becker property last week for $250 The Fort Recovery real estate mark-is opening up brisk for the new year. Ft. Recovery Tribune.

Farm Lands

Anna Gusse to Fred Glese, 80 acres, Re-Anna Guss to Fred Glese, 20 acres, Recovery Januite S. Bellell to Nathau Hainline, I sere, Jefferson John H. Smanbaugh to John F. Shambaugh, 534 news, Liberty J. Vining to W.A. Byerley, 3 acres, Jefferson George Wilson to Riley & Hierholzer, 48% acres, Jente.
Amanda Frana forter to James B. Nottingiahm, 14 acres, Center J. W. Myers to James Myers, 41% acres, Buller Jane Myers to J. W. Myers, Someres, Butter
Sheriff Mercer County to Lens Kenney, Staces, Jefferson
Dewald F. Schaadt to Rachel M. Alt,
40 acres, Liberty
Neille L. Warrick to Lorin C. Warrick,
784 acres, Blackereek
Mary A. Altenbend to Maria L.
Brandt, 37 acres, Blackereek

Town Property. Margaret Bookwalter to S. A. Bow-man, Lot 10, Mendon
Anna Kennard to Frank V. Short, Let
21, Forest Heights, Uelina
A. B. Newcomb to John H. Puthoff Lot A. B. Newcomb to John H. Puthoff.Lot 140
John W. Buschor to Bernard Stukenborg, Outlot 31, Coldwater
Mary A. Stukenborg to John W. Buschor, Lot 196, Coldwater
Hiram P. Miller to W. S. Dine, Lot 2,
Ottizens add, Celina
The Celina testity Co. to W. S. Dine,
Lot 3, Cit zens add, Celina
Nancy J. Winger to Joeph J. Winger,
Lot 17 and 18, Citizens add, Celina
Joseph J. Winger to Joeph J. Winger,
Lot 18, Celina
Anna B. Albery to F. D. Carpenter,
Lot 198, Celina
Geo, Struckman, ex., to J. A. Long Co.,
Lots 199 and 12, Celina
L. F. Haudabaugh to Ed. L. Bryson,
Lots 464, 466, 463, 483, 484 and 485, Celina
Ed I. Bryson to The China Realty Co., same lots
Lancette Belmert to Catherine Vondenbesch, Lot 16, Burkettsville
Catharine Vondenbosch to Henry Balmert, same lot
Jacob J. Yauch to Mary Fleck, Lot 16, Jacob J. Youch to Mary Fleck, Lot 96, Oelina
H-nry Pond to Harry Baucher, Lot 42,
Hawk us add., velvia
Simon Kleer to Arthur P. Dull, Outlot
18, Rockford
Andy Ritchle to Mary M. Colson, part
Outlot 4, Moniezuma

"Dot, the Miners, Daughter"

A new temperance play, "Dot, the Miner's Daughter: or One Glass of Wm. Romer has been a Win-," a spicedid play in four acts, usignee by Judge Dugan, will be given at the Wabash Operahouse to-morrow (Saturday) evening by local talent. You can not afford to miss it, and you should not if you

James Jones, aged 86 years, a veteran of the Civil War and a well known last Monday, where they will reside pioneer resident of the west end of until spring when they expect to move the county, died at his home three on a farm, recently purchased, in the guest of her parents, Judge and miles northeast of Ft. Recovery, about Washington Township. John during Mrs. S. A. Armstrong, East Livingthe result of kidney trouble and the court house, assisting his brother, who day for Lima, where she joins her hus-infirmities of old age. He is survived has been faid up that long, following band, Dr. J. R. Johnson, who is now by his wife and fourteen children, an operation for appendicitis. He Funeral services were held at the made a host of friends while in this Christian Church at Ft. Recovery yes- city who will regret his leaving the terday afternoon. Interment in Green Mound cemetery.

Mrs. Wm. Hull, aged 19 years, died yesterday afternoon at her home, nine miles west of this city, after a linger-ing illness of tuberculosis. A husband and young son survive hor.

Colt Didn't Come Up to Specifications, Hence Suit

Nicholas Johnson was awarded judg-ment for $100 against John Hein by a jury in 'Squire Short's court last Friday, the action resulting from a horse sale. Johnson, several weeks ago, purchased a colt from Mr. Hein, but after having the animal for several of Celina in Census Returns Is days he found, so he claims, that it was sick, and therenpon returned it to Mr. Heln, who, however, refused to return the money.

Squire's Schedule for Fares Is Discouraging

Ray Sullivan, Fred Cook and Ralph Dysert, young men of Rockford, were arrested last Friday on affidavits filed in 'Squire Short's court by Detective ing and shows the deep interest taken in King Corn throughout the county.

The exercises will open with an adpart of the control of the county F. J. Hott, of the Cincinnati Northern Center Township farmers will hold their nineteenth annual institute in the township hall at Neptune next Wednesday and Thursday, for which they have arranged an attractive program. Besides home talent, they will have two outside lecturers of note—A. H. Judy, of Greenville, and S. A. Brookhart, of Wapakoneta.

The program is as follows: Wednesday - Morning session, 10 o'clock-

Invocation Rev. J. G. Beard
The Farmer's Part in State Institutions
A. H. Judy
Discussion H. K. Townsend Afternoon session, 1 o'clock-

Evening session, 7 o'clock-The Yellow Peril A. H. Judy Becitation Buth Shanklin Laws and Nature of Lightning ... John Grill Thursday - Morning session, 9:30 Query Box

in n-	Discussion S. A. Brookhat Spraying and Care of An Orchard S. A. Brookhat Discussion S. K. Copelan 10.
et	Afternoon session, 1 o'clock-
_	Query Box Reports of Committees
	Story of an Old Farm A. H. Jud
- 1	Discussion J. C. Kruge
	Sheep S. A. Brookhar Discussion H. S. Stanber

Another Gasser at Montezuma

A gas well of considerable pressure ame in the first of the week in the he result of a try for oil on the George Klosterman farm, in which that genleman and a few of his neighbors were jointly interested. This is the second good gasser in that field in the last lew weeks, the other one being on the 5000 theeley farm, which made a showing ing of high grade oit.

Law Changes Time of Making Settlements

Owing to a change in the law the lelinquent tax sale will not occur until he second Tuesday in February, delaying the annual settlements with to St. Henry for a visit. township, corporation and school district tr asurers almost a month compared with former years, Previous sales took place the third Tuesday in January. Distribution of funds will not be made until the first week in er, West Virginia.

Town Topics

If you can't get Hanford's Balsam, write G. C. Hanford Mfg. Co., Syra-cuse, N. Y. Two sizes: 50c, $1.00.

George Leifeld, a farmer, had a leg y sterday morning.

Drayman and Mrs. Arthur McMurtheir home just Monday.

Ex-Treasurer J. M. Howick, who week ago was appointed as one of the of Portland, Ind., were the last Sun Senate door keepers, this week secured day guests of Misses Mand s job as one of the assistants in the Buck, North Sugar street.

Mer of Secretary of State Graves. Bernard Forsthoefel, a groceryman of St. Henry, made an assignment for Allce, the baby daughter of Dr. and Virs. John Johnson, fell down a flight Tebben.

of stairs at the home of her grand par.

Atto ents, Judge and Mrs. S. A. Armstrong las Saturday evening, fracturing her left arm just above the wrist.

John Linn and wife, of Liberty Township, who have been living with the former's brother, Philip Linn and wife, for the past year, returned to the home of Mr. Linn's parents in Liberty two o'clock last Tuesday morning, as his stay here, acted as janitor of the ston street, for some months, left Tuescounty building, but at the same time they will be glad to see Philip able to again be on duty.

Farm for Sale

The undersigned wili-sell at private sale what is known as the Mulberry farm, one quarter mile north of Wendelin, consisting Grocerman D. E. Robinson, of Rockford, was a pleasant caller at this office yesterday, Mr. Robinson is endeavoring to sell his grocery stock, owing to the fact that he cannot look after the business on account of sickness.

Quarter miss north of wenden, consisting of sixty-eight acres, mostly bottom land. New 7-room house with cellar. Bank barn, 22-to hog stable and corn orth cell of the data in the fact that he cannot look after the business on account of sickness.

General, Still It's Biggest Little Town on Earth

And the Best, Bygosh!

Well, we're disappointed and incon-clable. We'd set our heart on the fact that we lived in a town that tipped the four thousand mark, yet we haven't been able to cut the thirty-five hundred mark by seven points. Still, it might have been worse. We have added 678 to our population the last ten years, while St. Marys has put on only 373 and Delphos but 521 names in the same time.

in the same time. Of our county towns Montexuma has lost beavily, almost one-third of her population vanishing since 1900. Chick-REAL ESTATE DOINGS Of Center Township Farmers Will Be Held at Neptune

Will Be Held at Neptune

Will Be Held at Neptune

Will Be Held at Neptune asaw is off one tally and Rockford 21.

Celina	3493	2815
Ft. Recovery		1097
Rock ford		1207
Coldwater	869	627
Mendon	621	599
St. Henry	560	Aces
Chickasaw	300	310
Montezuma	228	817
Mercer	228	1,555
Burkettsville	236	8.000

Trouble Settled in the Most Sensible Way

Willshire Carpenter was arrested by Officer Hight last Saturday night on a charge of non-support, filed by his wife, Mabel Carpenter. The case was set for bearing in 'Squire Short's court Wednesday, but in the meantime

Given Chance to Make Good

Van Baker was arrested by Constable Coates last Monday on a charge of failure to pay a board bill, the affidavit being filed by John Schmel, pro-prietor of the Reservoir hotel. He was fined $10 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in the work house. The fine and sentence were remitted on condition that the prisoner go to work and pay the bill, which amounted to $6.

Benefit for the Neptune Seniors

The young people of Neptune will present a comedy at the township hall, at Neptune, tomorrow (Saturday) evening, entitled "Josh Winebester," for the benefit of the senior class of the Neptune High School. Admission came in the first of the week in the F anklin field, east of Montezuma, as the rung up at 8 o'clock prompt. Everybody cordially invited.

PERSONAL

Sores healed by light applications of Handford's Balsam

-Deputy Anditor Miss Berths Du-gan, resumed work Tuesday after s two weeks vacation visit with relatives at Columbus and Bellefontaine. -Mrs. Frank Schlosser, of Chicago

Schlosser and wife, while on her way -Attorney and Mrs. E. J. Brookhart left yesterday for a visit with the latter's brothers, Philip and Elmer Freshwater, and their wives, at Chest-

-Mrs. Ernest Gable and daughter, Margaret, of Cincinnati, are guests of relatives in this city.

-Thomas Tester and wife, of Rock. ford, were in this city Wednesday closing up a sale of their property in that village to Ralph Ransbottom,

-Mesdames Richard Raudabaugh, of Lansing, Mich., and George Guthrie, broken while handling logs at the of Muncie, Ind., who were called here Hartings handle factory at St. Henry several weeks ago by the illness and death of their mother, Mrs. Adaline Fanger, and who have since been visray are the proud parents of a ten iting their sister, Mrs. S. P. McGriff, pound baby girl, which arrived at returned to their respective homes the first of the week.

-Orlo Wright and Lorenzo Lambert, day guests of Misses Maud and Flossie

-Lowis Anselman, wife and daughters, Bertha and Ida, of Chattanooga, were in this city Tuesday, the young the benefit of creditors on Wednesday. ladies going on to Lima for an extend-Wm. Romer has been appointed as ed visit with relatives.

> -Mrs. A. J. Hierholzer, of Cassella, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joe F.

> -Attorney O. Raudabaugh and Wm. Newcomb returned home last Saturday from a two weeks hunting trip at Relifoot Lake, Tenn. -Superintendent Andrew Schunck > and Ex-Infirmary Director John Schindler, of Ft. Recovery, were at Columbus this week attending a meeting of State Infirmary officials. -Mrs. John Johnson, who has been the guest of her parents. Judge and

He located in that city.

Richmond, Va., this week, taking depositions in the Randolph slave cases. Mr. Kenney will also look after some

Fire Badly Singes a Rockford Residence

The Oliver Dysert home at Rockford was partially destroyed by fire shortly before twelve o'clock last Monday. The fire, which is supposed to have started from a defective flue, was not discovered until it had burned through the roof of the building, and before it could be extinguished considerably damaged the upper portion of the Farmers of That Vicinity Wake house and contents.

The First National Re-elects Old Officers

The following officers were re-elected by the First National Bank last Monday evening for the ensuing year: President, Judge J. H. Day; vice president, Dr. J. E. Hattery; cashier, C. H. Howick; assistant eashiers, J. P. LeBlond and T. A. Weis; directors—J. Romer, of St. Henry; J. H. Day, J. E. Hattery, C. H. Howick and J. W.

Saloon Tax Fails to Stop Rising Rate

[Mendon Herald]

Nearly every one who returns from aying taxes complains of the increase. We notice that the increase on our office effects is nearly one-third. At that rate the tax-payers are certainly piling up huge sums in the treasury. The question naturally arises, why is this increase? Everything points to the fact that in this day of retrenchment, economy, and close watch of expense, taxes should go down instead of up. With officers salaries reduced from that of a few years ago (under the old regime of unlimited salaries,) there ought to have been a reduction in the rate long ago, so that the extra, legitimate expenses which the county is now assuming would not even bring it up to the old rate of eight or ten years ago. Another thing, one would suppose rom what the saloonists and their friends said two years ago and since, that the saloon tax would be almost all that was necessary, and yet we find that in one of the wettest counties in the state, the tax rate clear out of reason and at last accounts still climbing. If ever anybody did believe in such talk the present high rate would dis-pel such belief. Let's hear no more talk about the saloon tax lowering the

Preliminary

By Rockford Farmers for Institute to Be Held Latter Part February.

[Rockford Press] mer's Institute to be held in the Opera House February 20-21.

President-George H. O'Neil. Vice President-Edward Adams. Secretary-J. J. McLaughlin. Treasurer— A. J. Bargahiser. Executive Board—L. C. Springer, C. . Wilson and Soi Shock.

State Speakers-Smith and Montgomery.

Special features will be introduced for the ladies' department and domestic science. All sessions free, no col-

III., was the guest Tuesday of Charles Rebekahs Initiate To Give Banquet

The local order of the Daughters of Rebekah, at their regular meeting last Tuesday night, initiated a class of six candidates and reinstated A. W. Meister. The new members were Meadames Henrietta Schunck, R. G. Clark, Reuben Wagner and Wm. Siler and the Misses Idela and Golda Garrison.

Following a three-link contest being carried on by the local lodge of Daughters of Rebekah, and which was won by the link "Love," a banquet will be spread by the members of the other two links at the lodge hall next Tuesday evening. All lodge members are requested to attend.

Card Social

The young ladies of the Immaculate onception Church give a card social this (Friday) evening in the Parochial School Hall, to which the public is cordially invited. After the games icacream and cake will be served. Admission 25 cents.

Revival Begins Sunday Evening

Revival services will begin at the Christian Church, on East Livingston street, of which Rev. G. W. Arnold is postor, on next Sunday evening. The public is cordially invited to atsend.

The ladies' aid society of St. Paul's M. E. Church will be entertained at the Loree home, North Main street, this afternoon.

City Mail Carrier Arch Cordier and wife have moved into the Mrs. Rush property, West Livingston street. Bleeding stopped by Hanford's

Man Wanted

A reliable and competent man to take county agency for a line of gasoline onlegal business at Washington before returning home.

Rheumatism? Apply Hanford's Balsam. Rub it on, and rub it in thoroughly.

Up to Importance of Institute Work.

G. W. Becher, of Chattanooga, was among The Democrat's visitors yester-day, and incidentally remarked that the farmers of Liberty township were not to be outdone in the institute business even if they had to go down in their jeans to pay for it. We are glad to see the spirit take hold of them, for, as our friend Becker says, Liberty has a fine lot of industrious farmers and good farms, but there is always some-thing to learn and the best way to do it is by exchanging ideas.

At an outhusiastic meeting last Monday evening an organization was effected for the purpose of holding an institute by the selection of the followng officers: President—Theobolt Leininger.

Vice President—R. B. Morrison, Secretary—S. L. Evans, Treasurer—Dan Bollenbacher, The institute will be held in the clos ing week of February. Another meet-ing will be held next Tuesday evening to formulate a program and make such other arrangements as is necessary.

Romance and the Minister By Antoinette Patterson

"My dear, may I help you to other small portion of fowl?" "Thank you, no, Josiah, I have

The first speaker turned again to Steps Taken their guest, Rev. Mr. Robert Duncan, who had come to take charge for two months of the little church in the western village of 8---, and who was being entertained by the Rawlins for the first time.

"Did you hear that Miranda Spear, our deacon's wife, fell today on the ice and broke her limb?"

Pursuant to a call, the progressive not." Then he asked, with a certain pertly: farmers of this locality met at the vagueness of sympathy pardonable "I suppose when Aunt Mayor's office Saturday, Jan. 7, and from the fact he had not met the unyou'll marry Miss Minton. effected an organization for the Far- fortunate lady, "Was it an arm or a she was promptly sent to bed by that leg? A tethered giggle here broke loose from Sulalia, the only other one at the table, and a piece of the hostess sleep. who, in default of other relatives, had undertaken to "raise" her. To "suppress" her would have been a truer statement of the case. Mr. Duncan, with a responsive twinkle in his eye, for the first time really noticed the girl. What a ridiculous looking little creature she was, anyway, with her freckled face, Irish nose, and two black plaits of hair braided so tightly they stood out from behind her ears and curled up at the ends.

After the stilted meal was over and Eulalia, notwithstanding her fourteen years, sent at once to bed. Mrs. Rawlins volunteered some information regarding her troublesome charge. Her poor romantic sister, it appeared, had disgraced the family by eloping with an Irish comedian, with whom, Mrs. Rawlins was unwillingly bound to admit, she was not actually unhappy even though such a marriage did shorten her life. The husband, too, died, and for three years their one child had been living with them. Here Mrs. Rawlins folded her hands piously and expressed the hope the good Lord would not hold her responsible, at least not altogether, for the miserable failure she had thus far made of things; that at least he would give This Evening her credit for having in her poor way tried to do her humble best. Mr. Duncan, who was a very unconventional parson, was just about to give utterance to a most conventional remark, when a crash was heard from the floor above. "It's some of that crazy stage scenery Euly's been rigging up in the loft. I'd better go up and see if she ain't buried under it. She don't always go to bed when she's sent."

With an air of resignation, turning to one of indignation when well out of sight, Mrs. Rawlins sailed off disclaiming any help from the men, who offered to accompany her.

Mr. Rawlins half took his niece's part. "She's smart, that girl, in spite of her nonsense," he said to Mr. Duncan. "And she'd have the gumption, every time, to pour sand down a rat hole." Now that his wife was out of hearing as well, Josiah Rawlins feit he could speak naturally again.

The next time Robert Duncan saw Eulalia was one afternoon when, returning from a visit to Deacon Spear. -Mr and Mrs. Frank Adair, or Pocobontas, Ark., who for several weeks have been visiting with the former's parents, Infirmary Director and Mrs. Henry Niehaus, returned heads, sores, chaps, ulcers, sunburn and all skin affections. 25 cents all stopped in pleased surprise, but support in pleased surprise, but swinging her books around from heads. he caught a glimpse of a lithe little shoulder she found two or three had slipped the strap.

"I suppose I'll have to find them," she said, ruefully. Then a sudden impulse seized her.

very young-and before he knew it he had fallen in with Eulalia's stops and the two were skipping along the road to a distinctly frivolous and very lively tune.

Duncan was enjoying himself im mensely, but he was glad a few yards brought the books to view. Had anyone happened along the position would have been a difficult one to explain away. They came to a sudden hait, both laughing heartly, the man more so than he had done since he left college. Then, with remembrances to the Rawlins, he parted with Eulalia.

On the way to the house where he was staying Robert Duncan thought about the little girl. He was wasting no sympathy now on Eulalia-at present she did not need it. She was like a rubber ball, the more force with which it was thrown the greater the rebound. If she was not allowed to sing and dance and laugh in the house she could go out into the sun-shine. But when Buialia grew a little older where would be found the affectionate wisdom needed to guide this evidently wilful soul? Not in the uncle, who was chiefly interested in his nieco's precocious cleverness, nor in the aunt with her ridiculously affected ways and narrow religious views.

The two months were now up and the regular shepherd, who had been away all this time recuperating from a severe illness, was ready to return to his flock, and Rev. Mr. Duncan was preparing to leave and take charge of a large parish in one of the eastern cities to which he had been called some time since.

During these last two months it had been a noteworthy fact that Eulalia's deportment both in church and Sunday school had been most exemplary But on this last Sunday afternoon of all she disgraced herself. Miss Susie Minton, who had taught in the Sunday school for five years, had been demonstrating the resemblance between leprosy and sin. After depicting the former in all its detailed horrors, she asked the little girls which they would rather be, sinners or lepers. "Lepers," several of them said in glib chorus

Miss Minton was smiling approval at the success of her teaching when suddenly Eulalia exclaimed, "Now you wouldn't-you just know you wouldn't!" At this very moment the bell for dismissal rang and the teacher was obliged perforce to see her class disband with heretical words ringing in their ears. Miss Minton, as was her custom when in trouble, went with tears in her china blue eyes to Mr. Rawlins, who had been superintendent also for five years. But the thing that counter was that the minister must have heard it all, for he had passed by with averted face. "No," asked the preacher, "I did usual careless fashion, the girl said

same Aunt Kate

For the first time, and for some reason, Eulalia Farren cried herself to

Three years have passed and on this especial evening Robert Duncan was sitting after rather a hard day's work by a fire in his comfortable study. His has also secured employment with the knocked at the door, opening it al. day afternoon. - Wapakoneta News. most simultaneously with the privilege of an old servant. "There's a couple in the parlor, Mr. Robbie," she said, "requiring your services.'

Rev. Mr. Duncan looked up from his He always took every chance book. given him to humor the old soul in her belief in her own discretion, which she could only explain at times as the gift of second sight accorded to the the estate of Andrew Siegrist, deceased

"Well, Mary, ought I to marry them?"

"I'm no so sure," Mrs. Purdy said. Then she added, "Ye may marry the woman, but no' the mon. She's very bonnia."

Had Robert Duncan not been Scotch | Feb., 11. also this advice might have seemed to present some difficulties. But as John Winhoven, divorce and partition, it was he only nodded his head as a order of injunction granted. sign of perfect comprehension. Then he said:

"Let them come in." As the two entered Duncan rose with a surprised cry. The extremely pretty girl before him could be none other than his little freckled face man, Cecelia and Josephine Ording, friend, Eulalia. The three years had filed third partial account for each passed over her with a magic touch, ward. For hearing Feb., 28, loosening the tight little pigtails into soft masses of dark, wavy hair, dispelling the freckles, moulding afresh the features and bringing into the dark eyes an expression of almost haunting sweetness.

The clergyman took the girl's out stretched hands. Then he turned to the man Eulalia introduced as Mr. Hubert Guilfoyle. Where and under what circumstances had be first seen that handsome, dissipated face? The man's eyes drooped under Duncan's steady gaze, but he said with an effort at a pleasant frankness:

"Miss Farren has just come from the train, where I met her by appoint offer to furnish it free of all cost if it ment. She was determined no one fails. should marry us but you. I have the license, and I hope what we ask will cause you no inconvenience."

"None at all," said Mr. Duncan, "but I think Miss Farren is too young to take so important a step. Why did you leave S--- ?" he asked Eulalia. "Aunt Kate died a year ago and Uncle Josiah has just married Miss Susie Minton. I wasn't needed any more-nor," she added in a low voice,

I seem to be asking a good many ques-Continued on Page Eight.

"Come," she said, "Fil show you Carpet and rug weaving, and rugs how to dance!" She took the preschfor sale. TRIANGLE, on Route 6; or streets, Celius, O.

Carpet and rug weaving, and rugs Rexall Store. The Riley Drug Co., southeast corner Main and Market er's hand. He was very nimble—still Phone 5 on 8.

Past Year in Washington Township Compared With the Previous Year.

Vital statistict of District 3827 for the year 1910 shows an increase in popula-tion (by births) of 44 for Washington township.

Deaths for the same time numbered 23, which is 16 more than for 1900, which was 7. The births for 1910 exceed those reported for 1909 by 4.
Of the list of deaths reported we find many of the older citizens have passed awas, and but six of the number were children. The death list contains the following names: Iva Mabel Powell, Snyder (still born), Henry Wellman, Ellen E. Poweil, Samuel Teeters, Philomena Grimme Mary A. Huerkame, John Muhlenkamp, Henry J. Vonderhaar, Mary E. Bryan, Rose C. Albers, Sarah J. Studebaker, Elizabeth Bobenmoyer, Margaret McQueen, Mahala Schroyer, Hulda A. Rasawehr, Sarah J. Carmack.

John Dixon, Sarah Bourelle, Thomas J. Carmichael, William F. Hole. Jacob Kettenring. Joseph Weigel.
All met death af a result of disease but one, Henry J. Vonderhaar, the victim of the boiler explosion on the John A. Doner farm, August 3, 1916. The work of the grim reaper goes

The following bills were allowed last Friday and are now payable: Bernard Bergman, overseeing Bergman pige $49 cg
The H. Cole Co., merchandise 80
Celina Telephone Co., telephone rent. 26 95
Geo. Kinnison, moving and erecting A. McKim, stomps W. Lore, services as attorney fees on Koch ditch hill Linn, janttor's salary.... Witten, engineer fees...... Wade & Son, stationery....

Pike Directors Meeting as a board of pike directors, the That evening at supper Eulalia was severely reprimanded. Instead of laughing the whole thing away in her usual careless fashion, the girl said pertly:

"I suppose when Aunt Kate dies"

"T suppose when Aunt Kate dies"

"Topical and the following bills: John Spriggs, supt. State Line pike. $178.60
Ben Evers, supt. Evers pike. $7.60
Albert Muthert, gravel on Kunkier pike. $2.76
Anton Rants, supt. Brockman pike. $2.76
Anton Rants, supt. Brockman

Two Less for Old Wapak

When Next Count Comes William Kiefer left Monday morning for Celina, where he accepted employ ment with the Mersman Bros .- Brandt one-time nurse, now his housekeeper. same factory and left for that city Sun-

S. P. McGriff appointed and qualified as administrator of Adaline M. Fanger, deceased. Inventory and appraise-ment Jan. 14.

filed account of final distribution. Girard Bailey, executor of the estate of Jefferson Andress, deceased, filed account of final distribution. Philip Miller appointed and qualified as administrator of the estate of Fannie Elizabeth Meihls, deceased. Petition to sell real estate filed. Hearing day In the matter of Mary Winhoven, vs.

Victoria Keeler, administratrix of of the estate of John Keeler, deceased, admitted to record. John M. Schlosser, guardian of Philomina Ording, filed final account.

For hearing Feb., 28. John M. Schlosser, guardian of Her-Emory Loudenbeck, administrator of Mary E. Bryan, returned and filed inventory and appraisment. No plaster equals Hanford's Balsam

WHY HESITATE

An Offer That Involves No Risk for Those Who Accept It.

We are so positive our remedy will ompletely relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we

Constipation is caused by weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestines or descending colon. expect a cure you must therefore tone up and strengthen those organs and restore them to healthler activity. We want you to try Rexall Orderlies on our guarantee. They are eaten like candy, and are particularly ideal for children. They act direct on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They have a neutral action on the other organs and glands. They do not purge or cause any inconvenience Again Rev. Mr. Duncan addressed whatever. They will positively over-Mr. Gulifoyle—"You will pardon me if and the myriads of associate or dependent chronic allments. Try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Two sizes, 190 and 25c. Sold only at our store-The